Chapter 1 by Lex

Dante stood over the body and glared at his brother, they locked eyes for just a moment before Dylan lodged the screwdriver into the chest cavity of the woman's body, her screams pierced the air around them but no one would hear her. He removed the screwdriver and stabbed her again, and again, over and over, her blood splattering across their faces as Dante's tongue slithered from his his mouth as he licks his sightly parted lips, the crimson drops of blood dripping from his mouth and face. Dylan slowly shove the screwdriver into the woman's stomach, very slowly until there's nothing but the handle sticking out. He removed it slowly and dropped it to the floor, reaching across the woman for the scalpel, she grabbed his arm weakly and sobbed.

"Please, I'm begging you to stop! Please!" her tears streaked her face and made the faintest 'ting' noise on the metal table she laid on. Dylan smiled and let out a burst of maniacal laughter.

"Oh please, beg all you want...no one can help you" He slowly dragged the scalpel down her stomach as she sobbed harder and let out a blood curdling scream as Dante eagerly plunged his hand into her abdomen and ripped out whatever he could put his hands on and instantly sunk
